

Telegram Analysis Project Data Dictionary

This is a dictionary indicating all of the columns and their meanings for the cleaned Telegram dataset.

message_id: a unique identifier for each message

channel_id: a unique identifier for each telegram channel

date: the date the message was posted

message: the message (text) of the post silent: Whether this is a silent message (no notification triggered) (binary True or False)

from_scheduled: Whether this is a scheduled message (binary 1 or 0)

edit_hide: Whether the message should be shown as not modified to the user, even if an edit date is present (binary 1 or 0)

pinned: Whether this message is pinned (binary 1 or 0)

views: View count for channel posts

Forwards: number of forwards for a channel post

Edit_date: Last edit date of the message

Reactions: all of the reactions for that post

Channel_name: name of the telegram channel making the post.

Origin: Country the channel originated from (either Russia or Ukraine)

total_reactions: the total number of reactions for that post

Ideology: the channel's crude ideology coding

Emoji columns: There is also a column for various emojis, indicating the total number of reactions using that emoji per channel post. List of all emoji reactions used:

